

LA NUEVA ONDA

LA Nueva Onda no tiene problema con nadie!

LA Nueva Onda doesn't have problems with anyone! What separates us from housepainters is freedom. Nothing is more boring in the world than to make a picture, what I want is an experience of making something you've never seen before in that way. LA Nueva Onda No quiere entender pintura analíticamente. Curious about failure , curious about boredom , curious about total freedom and multiple choices.

Bad art trains our taste .

Theres a mysterious process at work here that I dont want to understand. Soñando despierto es la manera de que yo quiero vivir. Have a sense of humor, for someone who has humor does not take himself so seriously. Imagine the world through an overhead projector, as the transparent films overlap their lines and contradictions onto each other with no problem or sophistications.
